

the present application is a C-I-P of the parent case as will be clearly apparent from the filing receipt and the letter of submission accompanying the filing of the application.

In any event, page 1 of the application has been amended to state that the present application is a C-I-P of U.S. Serial No. 238,764, filed August 30, 1988.

It is respectfully requested that the Final Rejection be withdrawn.

Claims 1, 2 and 49 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs, on the ground that the claimed invention is not described in such full, clear, concise and exact terms as to enable one skilled in the art to make and use the same, etc.

In light of the rejection, claim 1 has been replaced by new claim 52. It will be noted that new claim 52 now defines the invention with the particularity required by 35 U.S.C. 112.

As will be noted, A¹ has been delineated with greater particularity as has A².

Both A¹ and A² are supported by the disclosure.

The basis in A¹ for the limitation "a substituted single ring aromatic heterocyclyl group having 4 to 7 ring atoms" appears at page 2, lines 31-33.

The basis in A² for the limitation "a benzene ring have 3 optional substituents which may be selected from, etc." is found on page 5, lines 2-3.

It is submitted that new claim 52 is proper under 35 U.S.C. 112 and is allowable since it now contains structural limitations.

Since claim 2 depends from new claim 52 and takes on all the limitations thereof, it is likewise believed proper under 35 U.S.C. 112 and therefore allowable.

effective amount.

Claims 1-43, 49-51 have been provisionally rejected as claiming the same invention as claims 3-46 of copending application Serial No. 238,764, while claims 44-48 and most likely claims 52-56 are similarly rejected.

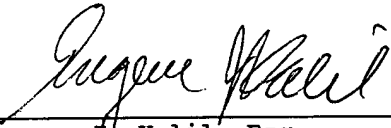

Applicant intends to drop the parent application Serial No. 238764 when all the claims herein are deemed to contain allowable subject matter.

Applicant believes that the present amendment satisfies all the requirements for patentability and allowability of claims 1-56.

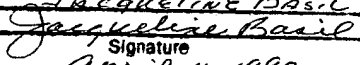

Reconsideration and allowance of all the claims are respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
